Read the given passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

The Stranger came early in February, through a biting wind and a driving snow, carrying a little black portmanteau in his thickly gloved hand. He was wrapped up from head to foot, and the brim of his soft felt hat hid every inch of his face but the shiny tip of his nose. He staggered into the "Coach and Horses". He stamped and shook the snow from off himself in the bar and followed Mrs. Hall into his quarters in the inn. Mrs. Hall lit the fire. But she was surprised that her visitor still wore his hat and coat, standing with his back to her and staring out of the window at the falling snow in the yard. His gloved hands were clasped behind him, and he seemed to be lost in thought. She noticed that the melting snow that still sprinkled his shoulders dripped upon her carpet "Can I take your hat and coat sir" ? she said, " and give them a good dry in the kitchen" ?
